LaLaPicasso Music - Student Contract

The Student will be automatically invoiced monthly (subscription billing) prior to each session. The monthly fee is based on the average number of days per month for the chosen day the student is receiving instruction. In other words, the number of classes per month will vary month to month as LaLaPicasso factors in all major holidays and will not run on those days. If you choose to cancel your lessons, a 2 week notice prior to next billing cycle is required.

The Student is responsible for his/her own attendance. If the Student cannot attend a lesson, he/she must notify the Teacher at least 24 hours in advance. Make up lessons can be arranged by contacting the teacher directly. Students are allowed only one (1) make up lesson per billing period. We will provide a sub if needed.

Lessons missed due to snow days will be made up at a mutually convenient time.

Students are required to own their own music and materials. If a new book is needed, one will be ordered by LaLaPicasso and will be delivered to student. Student will be billed for the book in following month's invoice.

Families and teachers should have an open line of communication and an ongoing dialogue about progress, goals, scheduling. Please exchange current contact information (cell phone and email).

I agree.

LaLaPicasso Music Schedule

GLENN A. KEANE

Glenn has been teaching guitar at The Easton Arts Center (LaLaPicasso) since March 2017. Professional guitar instructor and guitarist with 30+ years of private instruction and performance experience. Glenn is able to work with students of all ages, levels and music genres. He specializes in creating an individualized, flexible curriculum that combines a practical approach to music theory, sight reading and performance. Students learn a proper, fundamental approach to their instrument while emphasizing development of their capabilities in note recognition, scale work, chord construction, and applications of certain techniques to assist the student achieve their goals.

DANIELA CARDILLO

Daniela has been teaching guitar, piano, voice and ukulele at The Easton Arts Center (LaLaPicasso) since February 2017. With passion for her music as well as the students she teaches, it comes as no surprise that she was in fact, hired on Valentine's Day. Daniela studied Concentration in Music Therapy / Songwriting at Berklee College of Music. She is able to work with students of all ages and levels.

JEREMEY LOMBARD

Jeremey has been teaching piano (Faber Method) at The Easton Arts Center (LaLaPicasso) since February 2018. Though Jeremey is a recent graduate of Western Connecticut State University, Bachelors degree in Classical Piano Performance 2014-2018, Jeremey is a fantastic asset to LaLaPicasso as his students enjoy their lessons with Jeremey while they learn. He has an interesting laid back approach with formal instruction.

ROBBIE SCHWARTZ

Robby has been teaching piano at The Easton Arts Center (LaLaPicasso “at home”) since April 2018. He is a 2016 graduate of Fairfield University, where he earned a Bachelor of Science degree studying Music and Biology. Robby also teaches private lessons in voice, and songwriting. Lessons include technique and performance skills, as well as training in general musicianship, in order to produce well-rounded musicians. He works with students of all ages and experience levels.

DANIEL BATTAT

Daniel has been teaching piano at The Easton Arts Center (LaLaPicasso) since March 2018. Daniel earned a BA in Music in 2016 - SCSU, studying classical and jazz piano, composition, harmony, improvisation, and music history. Upon graduation, he began teaching piano to a mixed age of beginners ranging from 4-13.

Daniel's eclectic musical influences, formal education, and personal experience as a professional musician has shaped him into a well-balanced musician and individual.
